Koregaon-Bhima case: SC grants Maha police time till Dec 1 to file chargesheet

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 29

IN SOME RELIEF to the Maharashtra police, the Supreme Court on Monday granted it time till December 1 to file the chargesheet in the Koregaon-Bhima violence case and ensure that the accused rights activists do not become entitled to statutory bail on account of non-filing of the probe report within the legally permissible period.

Under the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), if police does not file the chargesheet within 90 days in serious offences, the arrested accused become entitled for grant of statutory bail on the ground of delay.

A Pune special court, on the expiry of 90-day deadline for filing of the chargesheet on September 2, 2018, had extended the time by another 90 days for filing the probe report in the violence case by taking note of the plea of the state police.

The Pune police had to file the probe report against the rights activists arrested in the case.

The bench, also comprising justices SK Kaul and KM Joseph, issued notice to the rights activists on a plea of the Maharashtra government, seeking their replies within two weeks, and stayed the operation of the high court order.

The bench considered the submissions of former attorney general and senior advocate Mukul Rohatgi, who appeared for the Maharashtra government, that denial of time would entitle the accused to statutory bail due to non-filing of the chargesheet within the stipulated time.

Assailing the high court order, Rohatgi, who was assisted by lawyer Nishant Katneshwar, said the investigating officer (IO) in the case had filed the application seeking extension of time for filing the chargesheet before the trial court and it was endorsed by the public prosecutor as well.

arrested lawyer Surendra Gadgil, Nagpur University professor Shoma Sen, Dalit activist Sudhir Dhawale, activist Mahesh Raut and Kerala native Rona Wilson in June for their alleged links with Maoists under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA).

The trial court decision was set aside by the Bombay High Court leading the state government to approach the apex court.

A bench headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi stayed the Bombay High Court order, which had set aside the lower court's verdict allowing extension of time to the police
